

HOPE[®]

CONFERENCE

Saturday, April 28, 2018 | 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. | Northern Quest Resort

Northwest Parkinson's Foundation presents: the 2018 HOPE Conference[®] Spokane. Join us for an educational symposium for people with Parkinson's, carepartners, family, and friends.

Meet our Keynote Speakers:

Jason Aldred, MD, FAAN

Jason Aldred, MD, FAAN will be speaking about non-motor symptoms. Dr. Aldred is a board-certified neurologist and Fellow of the American Academy of Neurology. He is a co-owner of and sees patients at Northwest Neurological in Spokane, WA. He is a clinical associate professor at the University of Washington, Department of Neurology and teaches medical students in the second year courses, as well as clinical neurology clerkship.

Jim and Judi Sloane

Jim and Judi Sloane will be speaking about their teamwork as a PWP and carepartner. Judi was diagnosed with PD 15 years ago and to maintain the highest possible quality of life, she started an aggressive program of exercise. To support his wife's journey with Parkinson's, Jim decided to use his hobby, racing vintage race cars through Spokane's annual Festival of Speed, to donate to the Parkinson's Resource Center.

Can't make it to the event? Tune in to our live broadcast! For more information & registration, visit our website: nwpf.org

Are you interested in volunteering?

Contact Halle Goodwin at 509-443-3361 or halle@nwpf.org.

NORTHWEST
PARKINSON'S
FOUNDATION