Report Your Care & Housing Availability

Care Availability is stream lining the way patients get connected to community care partners. We are a community based company with a web-based platform that serves as a one stop shop for all care services and senior housing needs. Health systems, case management teams, and clinics rely on Care Availability when searching for available services. Health teams care can find your housing or care availability information with just a few clicks.

Our business was built with the family's experience in mind. The search feature allows for families to self-advocate and choose providers they want to contact. No personal information is required, collected, or shared to search available care providers. ALL licensed providers can also sign up with a basic profile and report their availability for free. The results in our system and practices remaining fair and equitable for everyone involved. Keeping the family experience and overall health outcome at the center is our priority.

Real Time Senior Provider Availability

Providers on our platform can edit their service types, availability and specific filters. This helps both families and health teams find your company more efficiently. Users can search for basic availability information and further filter the search by distance, or other advanced filters such as bariatric care, ventilator care, hoyer lift, two person transfers and more.

Get Started Reporting Senior Care Vacancies

You can get started and begin reporting availability today. It is free to manage and report your availability information. Enhanced profile features such as virtual tours, photos, content, and more are available at a cost. Get in touch with us to learn more about our pricing plans and features.

Family Resources

If the list of availability is overwhelming, you may wish to work with a referral agency. Housing Referral Agency or Information Specialist offers advice and referral services about senior housing communities; most are at no charge to the individual and are paid by the senior housing community. You can search the Retirement Connection site for “Referral Service and Housing Specialists” for additional help to learn about availability, virtual tours and more.
