

You are invited to a special event

WALK TO END ALZHEIMER'S® CORPORATE TEAM RALLY

Thursday, June 10, from 8 - 9 a.m.

Companies of all sizes can make a difference.
Learn more at this year's Corporate Team Rally!

You are invited to make a difference in the fight to end Alzheimers!

Please join us online for our 2021 Corporate Team Rally, a special event featuring an opportunity to network with our corporate panel, and learn how your company can make a meaningful impact for those in your community and workplace who are affected by Alzheimer's and all other dementia.

Greg Roderick

President & CEO, Frontier Management, LLC

Tim Sobol

Executive Director, JPMorgan Chase & Co.

Kendall Ekerson

Director of Marketing, Columbia Roofing & Sheet Metal

Jennifer Fraga

Senior Associate Director of Corporate Initiatives, Alzheimer's Association

Why Should My Company Participate?

- » Alzheimer's costs American businesses $61 billion a year in health care expenses and lost productivity due to caregiver absenteeism.
- » 78 percent of consumers are more likely to buy a product or patronize a business that is associated with a favored cause.
- » According to the Society for Human Resource Management, nearly 6 out of 10 individuals caring for an aging loved one work full-time.

Register today!

CLICK TO REGISTER ▶

Thank you to our event sponsors:

