

MEDICATION MANAGEMENT: KEEPING YOURSELF & YOUR LOVED ONES SAFE

Tuesday, June 8
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM

Click here to register

Making mistakes with medications is more common than you think—especially with so many disruptions during COVID-19. The Washington Poison Center is receiving significantly more calls from adults ages 60+ about pill predicaments like double dosing or taking the wrong medication. Join Washington Poison Center staff for a discussion on these common medication errors, the practices that put people at higher risk of making a mistake, and easy strategies to prevent errors.

